

MAP Meeting 2: Your Network

About

- Goal
 - Learn how to better leverage your individual networks and understand how to better utilize the DBC Alumni Network in the job search.
- Expected Outcomes
 - Identify key people to reconnect with within your network.
 - Define a plan for engaging with the Alumni Network.
 - Research techniques for identifying connections or mutual connections working for companies of interest.
- Reading

 - Watch: Learn to Network Like a Pro
- Homework
 - Map out your network prior to meeting as a group. Get an idea of if there are people you know or in the DBC Alumni Network working at companies of interest to you.
- Framing
 - The MAP group is part of your network. Learn from one another how to utilize individuals within your network. Whether they are in the tech industry or a developer or not, don't discount someone you have a relationship with. You never know who your connections know or the leverage they may be willing to use in your favor. Learn how to utilize your network and/or other communities you participate with to find job opportunities.
